EUMERGENCIES Research Seminars & Roundtables : Recordings available

Dear Colleagues, Students and IEE Friends,

As part of the EUMERGENCIES Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence (2025-2028), the Institute for European Studies (IEE) of UCLouvain Saint-Louis Bruxelles is pleased to announce that the recordings of our latest research seminars and roundtables are now available online.

These sessions provide academic insights into the European Union's legal and political responses to contemporary crises. The first available recordings address several critical issues currently at the forefront of the European agenda:

- The Reparations Loan for Ukraine: A deep dive into the legal and political implications of mobilizing immobilized Russian assets, with Benjamin Bodson (Cabinet of DPM and FM Maxime Prévot), Pierre Klein (ULB) and Peter Van Elsuwege (Ghent University)
- The European Preparedness Union Strategy: An assessment of the EU's evolving resilience framework and institutional readiness with Miriam Alba Reina (Red Cross EU Office), Federico Casolari (University of Bologna), and Jean-Louis De Brouwer (Egmont Institute)
- Activating Article 2 TEU in the Union's Values Crises: An analysis of how EU values can serve as yardsticks for judicial review before the CJEU, with Luke Dimitrios Spieker (Humbolt University) as speaker, and Yann Lorans (Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne) and Cecilia Rizcallah (UCLouvain Saint-Louis Bruxelles) as discussants

Our seminar and roundtable series will continue throughout the academic year. New resources covering upcoming topics—including geopolitical challenges related to Greenland—will be added to the library shortly.
